1. Applicant is given no new time period if the non-compliant amendment is an after-final amendment or an amendment filed after allowance. If applicant wishes to resubmit the non-compliant after-final amendment with corrections, the entire corrected amendment must be resubmitted.
2. Applicant is given one month, or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer, from the mail date of this notice to supply the correction, if the non-compliant amendment is one of the following: a preliminary amendment, a non-final amendment (including a submission for a request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114), a supplemental amendment filed within a suspension period under 37 CFR 1.103(a) or (c), and an amendment filed in response to a Quayle action. CONTINUATION SHEET

The amendments to the claims are non-compliant. Claims 1, 15 and 17-22 include the phrase "fusion partners". It appears that Applicants intend to amend "fusion partners" (plural) to "fusion partner" (singular). Applicants have incorrectly amended the word "partners" by placing the "s" in a single bracket. Bracketing is correctly used to show removal of five or fewer consecutive characters if a strike through cannot be easily perceived. However, the characters must be placed in double brackets. For example, fusion partner[[s]]. See MPEP 714.

In addition, claim 1 has been incorrectly amended. In the claim set filed 2/1/2007, claim 1 recited two method steps A) and B). In the amendment filed 11/5/2007, a method step has been added to claim 1. It appears that Applicants have added the step at the beginning of the method and merely shifted the labeling (A, B, C, etc) of the method steps down so that the newly added step is now step A) and the step that was previously step B) is indicated as step C). This is noncompliant because there is no indication that step A) used to recite the phrase "bringing into contact the fusion partners" and that step B) used to recite the step beginning with "providing an electric field...". The record of the claim is muddled by this amendment. In addition, there are dependent claims which refer to "the electrical field in step B" which may be rendered indefinite since step B) no longer refers to an electric field.
